

Group Term Life Insurance Plan

- Up to $500,000 in coverage
- Additional Accidental Death Benefit

Life Insurance is Important Protection to Help Meet Your Family's Needs

You certainly understand the importance of having sufficient life insurance. Now, you have the opportunity to make sure you have that protection. Your loved ones will appreciate the additional peace of mind this Plan can provide, with benefits up to $500,000 that will help let them go on with less financial concern.

About This Plan

You may select from $25,000 to $500,000 in term life insurance coverage (in $25,000 increments).

Who May Apply

All Illinois CPA Society members and their spouses under age 60 and working Actively-at-Work 30 hours a week are eligible to apply for this Plan. Unmarried, dependent children under age 19 (23 if a full-time student) are also eligible for $5,000 of coverage ($500 if age 15 days to six months). When both Spouses are eligible members, each may apply as a member; however, coverage may not be duplicated by applying as dependents of the other. Dependent Children can only be covered by one spouse.

Spouse includes domestic partners who have provide a domestic partner affidavit or other documentation as required by law.

This coverage is not available in all states.

Termination of coverage

As long as you remain an active member of the Illinois CPA Society, pay your premium when due, and the Master Policy remains in force, you can keep your coverage until you turn age 70. Your dependent's coverage will remain in effect as long as your coverage is active, premiums are paid, and they meet the eligibility requirements.

IMPORTANT FEATURES

Additional Accidental Death Benefit

If death should occur as the result of a covered accidental Injury and within 90 days from the date of the accident and you are covered under this benefit, your beneficiary will receive an additional amount equal to your selected benefit (not to exceed $250,000). Injury means bodily Injury resulting directly and independently of all other causes from an accident which occurs while the person is covered under the Policy.

Non-Smoker Rates

Pay less if you have not smoked cigarettes, cigars or used a pipe or chewing tobacco, nicotine chewing gum or snuff in the last 12 months, you are eligible for a non-smoker premium rate.

Waiver of Premium for Disability

If you become Disabled prior to age 60 and the disability continues for six consecutive months, premiums will be waived as long as the disability continues, up to age 70. When your disability ends, premium payments resume.

Disabled means You are wholly and continuously prevented from: performing any work or occupation for wage or profit for which You are reasonably qualified or trained; or if not employed, engaging in the normal activities of a person of like age and gender in good health; as a result of injury or sickness.

If You are in an occupation that requires You to maintain a license, Your failure to pass a physical examination required to maintain that license does not alone mean that You are disabled.

Accelerated Death Benefit

In the event of a Terminal Illness, you may receive up to 50% of the life insurance benefit before death to a maximum of $100,000 upon being diagnosed by a physician as having less than 24 months to live. Member must be covered with at least $50,000 life insurance and be under age 70 to be eligible for these benefits. The face amount of your term life coverage is then reduced by the accelerated benefit paid out. Receipt of accelerated benefits may be taxable. Seek assistance from your personal tax advisor for more information.

 Accelerated benefits may be taxable. These materials are not intended to provide tax, accounting or legal advice and cannot be relied upon for any such purpose. We recommend that you consult with a qualified tax advisor. Accelerated benefits may affect your or your family's initial or continued eligibility for public assistance, such as medical assistance (Medicaid), Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), supplementary social security income (SSI), we recommend that you consult with social service agencies with any questions regarding eligibility for public assistance.

Satisfaction Guaranteed

You may return your Certificate of Insurance within 30 days if you are not completely satisfied with the coverage this Plan provides. Any premiums paid will be fully refunded, minus any claims paid.

Convenient Payment Options

Automatic Monthly Check Withdrawal: Choose to have your premiums automatically deducted from your checking account on a monthly basis.

Semi-Annual Direct Bill: Choose to have your premiums billed to you directly on a semi-annual basis.

Beneficiary Selection

You may name anyone you wish as the beneficiary of this Plan, and you may change your beneficiary by contacting the Insurance Administrator in writing and advising them of the change. Only requests received prior to Your death will be accepted. Your beneficiary may choose to receive benefits in a lump sum, monthly installments or a combination of both. If you do not name a beneficiary the insurance amount will be paid to your survivors, in equal shares, to first your spouse; children; parents; brothers and sisters or to your estate.

Conversion Privileges

You and your covered family members may convert your group term life insurance into an individual insurance policy, subject to the policy provisions offered by the insurance company if coverage ends for any reason except nonpayment of premiums. You will not be required to provide any physical proof of insurability for this conversion to an individual life insurance policy. Your Certificate of Insurance contains more details on this conversion privilege.

*For renewal purposes only.

Rates are based on the attained age of the Insured person and increase as you enter each new age category.

For the other benefit levels not listed in this brochure, please contact the administrator.

You are considered a non-smoker if you have not smoked cigarettes, cigars or used a pipe or chewing tobacco, nicotine chewing gum or snuff in the last 12 months. Premiums are based on applicant's age at date of issue and on attained age at renewal dates. This rate table should not be used to calculate your premium beyond your attained age when your coverage becomes effective. Rates and/or benefits may be changed on a class basis. Coverage is renewable to age 70. For Children's coverage: Add $1.15 to your monthly premium (for semi-annual, add $6.90) for children 6 months to 19 years of age (23 if full time student) for a benefit of $5,000 ($500 for age 15 days to 6 months).

If paying by Semi-Annual Direct Bill, here is how you would compute your premium: find the appropriate monthly rate above and multiply by 6.

If applicable, an additional $2 billing fee will be included on your billing notice payable to the administrator. To save the fee, select Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) as a safe and secure payment option.

Acceptance into this plan is subject to medical evidence of insurability as determined by The Hartford and underwriting guidelines. As part of the evidence of insurability process, a medical examination, medical test(s), or other evidence of good health may be required. Any exams/tests requested by the company will be conducted at your convenience and at no expense to you.

Notice of Information Practices

This notice applies to residents of: All states, excluding Massachusetts.

The Hartford Life and Accident Company respects your right to privacy and values your trust. This Notice explains how we collect, use and protect your personal information and your rights regarding that information.

Information We Collect: While your application for insurance is our primary source of information about you, we may also need to collect or verify information from other sources such as physicians and other medical and health care providers and professionals, health facilities such as hospitals, clinics, pharmacies, employers, consumer reporting agencies, and insurance-support organizations, which may provide us with an investigative consumer report about you. Organizations that provide us with consumer reports about you may disclose the contents of the report to others for which such organization performs such services. We may collect personal information about you that is necessary to determine your eligibility for insurance, to service your insurance policy, and otherwise as permitted by law; the information may include information from which judgments can be made about your age, health and medical history, occupation, avocations, finances, credit, character, habits, general reputation, or any other personal characteristics. We also collect information about your transactions with us, such as the products you buy from us; the amount you paid for those products; your account balances; and your payment and claims history.

Personal History Interview: To provide you, our client, with the best possible service, we may also conduct what we call a personal history interview. This is a phone call placed from our underwriting office. Its purpose is to make sure that the application information is complete. Our interviewers are trained to conduct their calls in a friendly, professional manner. The nature of the information discussed is always treated as personal and confidential and will only be used to assess your eligibility for insurance.

Medical Information Bureau (MIB) Pre-Notice: Information regarding your insurability will be treated as confidential. Hartford Life and Accident Insurance Company or its reinsurer(s) may, however, make a brief report thereon to the MIB, Inc., formerly known as Medical Information Bureau, a not-for-profit membership organization of insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply to another MIB member company for life or health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such a company, MIB, upon request, will supply such company, with the information about you in its file. Upon receipt of a request from you, MIB will arrange disclosure of any information in your file. Please contact MIB at (866) 692-6901 (TTY (866) 346-3642). If you question the accuracy of the information in MIB's file, you may contact MIB and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. The address of MIB's information office is 50 Braintree Hill Park, Suite Model 400, Braintree, Massachusetts 02184-8734. Hartford Life and Accident Insurance Company, or their reinsurers, may also release information from their files to other insurance companies to whom you may apply for life or health insurance, or to whom a claim for benefits may be submitted. Information for consumers about MIB may be obtained on its website at www.mib.com.

Disclosure of Personal Information: We will not disclose your personal information to third parties without your authorization except in connection with our business or as otherwise permitted or required by law. For example, in connection with our general business practices, we may disclose personal information we collect to: companies performing services or functions on our behalf, including other insurers, agents or insurance support organizations, including for the purpose of determining your eligibility for insurance benefits or payments; detect or prevent fraud or criminal activity in connection with insurance transactions; medical care institutions or medical professionals for the purposes of verifying coverage or benefits; insurance regulatory authorities or law enforcement of other governmental authorities to prevent or prosecute the perpetration of fraud; the policyholder of a group insurance policy (for example an employer who provides group insurance) for purposes of reporting claims experience, conducting an audit of our operations or services, risk mitigation or other permissible purposes; third parties who collect data regarding claims for purposes of underwriting and claims handling, or to a third party as otherwise permitted or required by law; or reinsurers.
